No Mayor's Court to-day, consequently we are without our usual news from that quarter.
DANGEROUS.—Do not box your children's ears; it is dangerous. The sudden blow by compressing the air in the ear, may rupture the tympanum, the thin membrane of which acts like a drum head, and upon which the sense of hearing depends.
THE LARGEST AND CHEAPEST STOCK ever brought to this market is to be found at H. HANSTEN & CO'S
New York House,
15 Market st.
FLAT SUNK.—A flat, the property of Messrs. Potter & Alderman, loaded with Government rock, sunk last night in front of the wharf of the Carolina Central Railway. Workmen are busily engaged in devising plans to get it up.
It is quite creditable to the eight townships in which such complaints existed in regard to the over-valuation of land, that they take up so small a space in the Sheriff's advertised lists of those who have not paid taxes.
THE PLACE to save twenty-five per cent, is to buy your Clothing, Shoes, Dry Goods, &c., at
S. HANSTEN & CO'S
New York House,
15 Market st.
SUPERADDED to the perilous times and momentous subjects which the editor has to consider, is the barking of a couple of dogs, which is not less distracting than the aforesaid troubles.
While the gentleman in charge of the financial and commercial department of the Post feels that he has evolved a scheme which will place the country out of its many difficulties, and which is now under consideration in a high quarter, he admits his inability to grapple with the dog. In fact, he rather dreads the dog, and offers in advance, his thanks to any one who will teach him how to make that dog on the adjoining lot, a friend to man and dog.
LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.—Your attention is called to the great bargains of Fall and Winter Goods at
S. HANSTEN & CO'S
New York House,
15 Market st.
WANTED.—A good washer-woman.
Apply at this office.
C. F. A. A.—We are gratified to learn that the committee in behalf of the Gift Enterprise appointed by the Executive Committee of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, are actively at work in the prosecution of their duties, with good prospect of success. The energy displayed by Col. McKay, the worthy President, assisted by the well known ability of the gentlemen comprising the Executive Committee is a sufficient guarantee that our next annual Fair will attract a large crowd to the Cape Fear section. We observe a meeting of the Executive Committee and Advisory Members is called at the Purcell House this evening at 7 o'clock.

THE TOWN CRIME.
—Mild.
—A fickle day.
—Gold down to 107.
—A cheerful rain last night.
—Hand in church notices to-morrow.
—Umbrellas are the correct thing and Munson has them.
—“Yesterday, to-day and forever”— Camel's hair cloth, for it's the thing.
—Every one wants to be near to the roof and hear the patter of the rain.
—The last novel is the “coming race.” We wonder were it comes from.
—“Uncle Duncan” says they don't have rice birds in Fayetteville. Poor little ville.
—Our boy says “what if God ain't at home when we ask him to do something for us.”
—Before the sun went under yesterday, the sky was beautifully gray with a tinge of pink.
—Is everybody thinking of the Tremaine Concert? We are. Their Ad appears to-morrow.
—Don't we wish we were in New-bern, they are having a heap of parties and gay doings there.
—Who says broiled oysters are not A 1. Go to Lumsden's and try “John's” style and be convinced.
—Why don't they say riding-coat and be done with it, instead of trying to anglicize Redingote?
—If you want to know what solid comfort is, go to “Dan” Smith's and get one of his big chairs.
—If a man could get a clock on “tick,” he would get on in Charlotte where a clock store is advertised.
—Our geranium sent by a charmingly generous little florist, is blushing with blossoms, and bears transplantation beautifully.
—Everybody had to send somebody else to do their shopping to-day. It wasn't a bit nice walking, even on the artificial stone.
—An old joke got into our local columns yesterday, headed as though new. This is said as the Post's signs aim to be entirely original.
—We have heard of having one foot in the grave, but when we see the number of feet on a gas bill, we feel as though the subject was grave enough to envelope us entirely.
THE Cape Fear Teachers' Association hold a meeting to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, at the Hemenway School House. All teachers are invited.
SUPPOSED WILL DIE.—From a person who arrived here yesterday from Rocky Point, we learn that sometime during the latter part of last week a couple of colored men whipped another man pretty severely, and it is feared that he will die from the injuries he sustained at the hands of his persecutors.
Our informant knew nothing of the primary cause of the affray, or the names of the parties.
KNOCKED OFF THE TRACK.—A man supposed to be a Swede, who was walking on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, going out of town, was knocked off by an engine on Tuesday morning while in the vicinity of the Fair Grounds. The unfortunate man was picked up and carried to the Poor House where he was made as comfortable as possible. His injuries are in no way serious but are quite painful. He speaks English so imperfectly that it is with very great difficulty that he is at all understood. We were unable to learn his name or where he was going at the time of his accident. We suppose that as soon as the facts are made known to the Swedish Vice Consul, Mr.
R. E. Heide, that an interpreter will be sent out to see the unfortunate man and learn his whereabouts, name, &c.
FRIGHTENED OFF.—An attempted raid on Messrs. E. Peschau & West-erman's store on Water street was made last night, but the thieves were frightened off before an entrance was effected. “The old story, ever new and thrilling” of boring through the back window and pulling out the bolt, is again to be told. The window sash being down, the thieves broke one of the panes of glass, the noise of which no doubt they thought would attract the police and be the cause of their plans being nipped in the bud. As we have before said, these burglaries are becoming alarmingly frequent, and should be put a stop to. If the present police force is not large enough to guard the city, let more strength be added to it, or let the city authorities employ a good detective to ferret out the thieves.
The most casual observer will notice that these systematic raids are made during stormy nights or when there is a ball, &c., in progress, in which the presence of the police is called into requisition to preserve order.

STATE ITEMS.
Ex-Gov. Vance is in at Charlotte.
Greensboro' is waiting for the want of a railroad to Cherraw.
Ladies are invited and expected to attend railroad meetings in Greensboro'.
The thermometer has been down to 24° at Hillsboro'.
Pave the streets, pave the streets is the cry that comes up from Raleigh.
Burke county is suffering very much by the late drought which is raging there.
The Sheriffs of only six counties have as yet settled their accounts with the Treasurer of the State.
A careless drayman at Raleigh ran over a little son of Dr. C. E. Johnson and injured him seriously.
Raleigh is agitating the question of a House of Refuge, to aid in the work of reformation of bad girls.
A sixteen year old boy at Durham tried to commit suicide last week, because his ma wouldn't let him get married.
An incendiary applied the torch, and now Dennis Tarlton, living near Wadesboro' hasn't any fodder for his stock this winter.
Dr. Blackhall of the Yarrowburgh House, Raleigh, has made extensive additions to his famous house, and is fully prepared for Legislators and all other visitors there this winter.
The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the State Insane Asylum was held at the Asylum Building on Wednesday, and much important business transacted.
The officers who were sent to Nebo, Illinois, to bring back Peter Staley, charged with the murder of Henry Clapp, have returned with the fugitive, who is now in jail at Greensboro', awaiting a trial for his life.
The Raleigh News hears it rumored that the case of the N. C. R. R. will soon be surrendered, and that road consolidated with the W. N. C. R. R. and the A. & N. C. R. R., the whole to be under the management of W. A. Smith.
The Raleigh News says that the rumor published by it and noticed by the Post to the effect that several of the large tobacco manufacturers at Durham, N. C., had suspended, turns out to be incorrect, and says that all of the establishments there are in active and successful operation.
Civil Rights State Convention.
In pursuance of a call issued in behalf of the colored citizens of the United States, to assemble in Washington on the 9th of December, 1873, the work of self-preservation as a part of the family of this great Republic, makes it incumbent upon the colored voters of North Carolina to send a full delegation from this State; and for that purpose, a State Convention will be held at Raleigh on the 25th day of November, at 12 o'clock.
Sons of Freedom! Brothers!
Native Sons of Labor and of Carolina!
Come to this Assembly of your countrymen in the interest of our race! Come, and send a shout of exultation to the National Capital, and the christian statesmanship of the age centered in the majesty of intellect and pure heart of our friend, next to Heaven, in America, the Hon. Charles Sumner.
Fellow Citizens in all great questions of political or moral reform, it is necessary that public sentiment should be aroused to the wrongs to be remedied.
We have true friends in Congress. The President has squarely planted himself in favor of refined progress, to the accomplishment of which our exertions must be directed. Then let us perform our whole duty, and the discriminations against us in a free State among a free people, will no longer vaunt the plea of lack of spirit among ourselves.
Eminent speakers from all parts of the State will be present, and arrangements for half-fare on the Railroads will be solicited.
Each County will be entitled to twice the number of representatives as Members in the Legislature, but may send as many delegates as may seem fit.
Then let us perform our whole duty; let the response to this call be general from the mountains to the sea, and may the spirit of God meet with and direct us to the ultimate success of our cause.
Respectfully,
Geo. W. Price, Jr., Hon. Geo. L.
Mabson, Hon. Wm. McLaurin and Duncan Holmes, New Hanover Co.; Hon. I. B. Abbott, Jno. R. Good, W.
W. Burton, Warren County; Rev. G.
W. Brodie, Chas. N. Hunter, Wake County; C. C. Best, Wayne County; Hon. Jno. S. Leary, A. J. Henderson, Cumberland County; Geo. M. Arnold, Guilford County; Hon. W. P. Mabson, Edgecombe County.
An amusing incident occurred at El-dora the other evening. A man who had recently buried his wife got married again immediately, much to the disgust of his neighbors, who, to be revenged, turned out in large numbers and gave him a rousing charivari. The easily-consoled husband stood the racket as long as possible, when he came to the door and administered a scathing rebuke to the crowd in this manner: “Ain't you ashamed of yourselves to be making such a noise about my house, when a funeral took place here but four days ago?”

they were shot on the morning of the Capt. Gen. Jouvenell to-day issued his official address. He says there is nothing of such pressing interest to the public good and the prestige and honor of a nation, as the restoration of the normal state of affairs in the Island of Cuba. He proposes to subject everything to this elevated consideration within the limits of the laws of the social question and the exigencies of the present epoch will be the object of special meditation and conscientious study.

Notwithstanding war has been initiated, will seek to determine upon the best plan for changing the condition of laborers. Keeping in view agricultural interests and the rights of proprietors, maintenance of productive industry and the general good of the country. He lays down as a basis of his policy and principle that the mission of all governments is to protect, consequently the fears that inconsiderate resolutions and extreme measures will be adopted, ought to cease. Confidence must be renewed, for without it the re-establishment of public credit would be impossible. The address concludes: All may rest assured that I will comply with the instructions from the National Government to be untiring in my efforts to procure peace, encourage credit and punish fraud; taking care none of the great interest of the island suffer while I act as your Governor.
The public rejoicings last night over the capture of the Virginus were most enthusiastic. The Governor's palace and public buildings, and many private houses, were illuminated. A torchlight procession passed through the principal streets, which were thickly hung with flags and tapestry. Serenades were given to the Captain General and the General of the Marine.
There will be a grand parade to-night of all the battalions of volunteers.
